*If any of the rights in the application have been licensed or transferred to another entity, then all other entities having such rights must also qualify as small entities in order for the applicant to be considered a small entity.

**A small business concern is one that has fewer than 500 employees, including employees of its "affiliates." Concerns are affiliates of each other when directly or indirectly one concern controls or has the power to control the other, or a third party or parties controls or has the power to control both. The number of employees is determined by counting the number of people the concern and its affiliates employed on a full time, part-time, or temporary basis during the concern's previous fiscal year.
